*Dr. Bobby Brown's term as American League President expired on December 31, 1993. He has agreed to remain in office until his successor is named and is available to serve. At press time the A.L. Search Committee had not made a recommendation on Dr. Brown's successor.

Major League Baseball and its 28 clubs will celebrate the 125th anniversary of professional baseball in 1994.

The first professional baseball team, the Cincinnati Red Stockings, was formed in 1869. Prior to that, the game was played on an amateur basis only.

As part of this year's festivities, MLB Properties has designed a special 125th Anniversary logo. The logo is a variation of the Major League Baseball logo created for baseball's centennial celebration in 1969.

Throughout the season, MLB and the clubs will celebrate the Anniversary through various events and ceremonies. Teams will wear a commemorative patch on their uniforms.

TRADING-WAIVER PERIODS

The only period during which waivers are required for the trading of players from one Major League club to another, is from August 1st until the day after the close of the championship season.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule." (a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as in the practice of the home team.
2. In All-Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both leagues so agree.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

(Adopted by the American League for the 1973 season.)

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of the Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the DH role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:
  (1) A curfew imposed by law;
  (2) A time limit permissible under league rules;
  (3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);
  (4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on;
  (5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:
    (i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
    (ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:
  (1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds; or
  (2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or
  (3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;
    (i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or
    (ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.
  (4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PLAYER LIMITS: The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he had (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service and time on the disabled list).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)
Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM, local time, it can be completed . . . Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams . . . This is the only curfew in the American League.

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are not compelled to do so now.)

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

A year of Major League service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season. On the Red Book roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of M.L. service.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

BACK TO BACK

Joe Carter became only the second man in Major League history to win a World Series with a home run, when he connected off Philadelphia's Mitch Williams in Game #6 of the 1993 Fall Classic. He gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship, making them the first team to win back-to-back World Titles since the 1977-78 New York Yankees. The Blue Jays, who had won the 1992 Series from the Atlanta Braves, took Game #1 from the Phillies, lost the second game and won the third. Game #4, a 15-14 slugfest ultimately won by the Blue Jays, was followed by a brilliant pitching performance in which Phillies starter Curt Schilling shut out the '92 champs 1-0. The stage was set for Carter's heroics when the Jays came to bat in the bottom of the ninth in Game #6, trailing 6-5. Rickey Henderson walked on four straight pitches, Devon White flied out, Paul Molitor singled to center and Joe Carter took his place in the history books with a home run to left field.

Most Valuable Player Paul Molitor with the trophy he won for leading the Blue Jays to their second consecutive World Championship.

MOLITOR CAPTURES MVP OF 1993 WORLD SERIES

Paul Molitor of the Toronto Blue Jays was named Most Valuable Player after leading the Blue Jays to their second consecutive World Series title. Molitor hit safely in all six games and finished the series batting .500 (12-for-24), with two doubles, two triples, and two home runs. He knocked in eight RBI's and scored ten runs, while walking three times.

In game three Molitor led the Jays to a 10-3 win by going 3-for-4 including a triple, home run, two RBI's, and two runs scored. In game six he helped Toronto to win its second consecutive World Serius by going 3-for-5 with a home run, triple, three runs scored and two RBI's. In the ninth inning Molitor singled and scored on Joe Carter's dramatic, World Series-winning home run.

Molitor is the second oldest MVP at 37 years, two months and one day. Willie Stargell fo the 1979 Pirates is the oldest at 39 years, five months and eleven days.

TORONTO'S DAVE STEWART NAMED MVP OF AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Right-handed pitcher Dave Stewart of the Toronto Blue Jays was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1993 American League Championship Series. Stewart won two games to improve his ALCS record to 8-0. For the series he had a 2.03 ERA, over 13.1 innings. He allowed eight hits, three runs, and eight walks, while striking out eight batters. This is the second time that Stewart has won the ALCS MVP. He won the award with Oakland in 1990.

In game two Stewart held the White Sox batters to four hits and one run through his six innings pitched, and worked his way out of a no-out, bases loaded jam in the sixth inning. In game six he pitched the clinching win, which was the fourth clinching win he has pitched in his ten ALCS starts—eight with Oakland, two with Toronto.

The American League has recognized the Most Valuable Player of the League Championship Series since 1980. Thirteen of the 14 winners have come from the pennant-winning club. Fred Lynn won the award in 1982 despite the Milwaukee Brewers victory over California. For the 1985 ALCS the league named the award for retired A.L. President Lee MacPhail.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JOHNNY OATES—Born January 21, 1946, Sylva, NC; Residence: Colonial Heights, VA . . . Married (Gloria), three children . . . Height: 6 feet. Weight: 185 pounds . . . Named Orioles' manager on May 23, 1991, replacing Frank Robinson.

Armed with a new two-year contract, Johnny Oates moves into his fourth year as Orioles field manager (third full season), looking to improve upon the club's 85-77 record and third-place tie with Detroit in 1993 . . . His overall record with the Orioles is 228-221, .508 . . . Coupled with Baltimore's third-place finish in 1992, the recent success marked the first time the team had posted consecutive winning seasons since 1984-85 and landed in the first division in back-to-back seasons since 1982-83 . . . Prior to 1992-93, no Orioles manager had completed consecutive winning seasons since Joe Altobelli accomplished the feat in 1983-84 . . . Since Oates was named manager, the Orioles' roster has undergone a massive change. Of the 28 players on the active roster (25-man sqaud plus three on the disabled list) on the day he was appointed, only seven remain. Since then, 13 players (including 11 home-grown prospects) have made their major league debuts for Oates and all but one are still on Baltimore's current 40-man roster . . . Oates is the second person to play for, coach and manage the Orioles (Frank Robinson was the first) . . . He is the only one to play in the Orioles' farm system (1967-71) and also with the Orioles (1970 and 1972), coach the Birds (1989-91) and manage for them in the minors (1988) and in the majors (1991-present). Even though his major league tenure is only 449 games, Oates already ranks fifth in the league in seniority (with current club), trailing Detroit's Sparky Anderson (1979), Oakland's Tony La Russa (1986), Minnesota's Tom Kelly (1986) and Toronto's Cito Gaston (1989).

MANAGER'S SKETCH

CLELL LAVERN "BUTCH" HOBSON—Born August 17, 1951, Tuscaloosa, AL . . . Resides: Aliceville, AL . . . Married; Krystin (Krys), five children . . . Height: six feet, one inch; Weight: 190 pounds . . . Named Red Sox 38th manager on October 8, 1991.

Hobson's 1993 Red Sox contended for the A.L. East title much of the season until a rash of injuries to the pitching staff hindered the team in September. Boston had its best start since 1952 and was tied for first place on May 2. An overall hitting slump was instrumental in the club's fall to fifth place, 13 games behind, on June 20, but the team rebounded to seize a first-place tie on July 23. On August 10, the second-place Red Sox were on a 33-11 surge and trailed Toronto by one game. They were still just three games behind Toronto and New York in the loss column on August 28 before the injury hex hit pitchers Jeff Russell, Frank Viola and Roger Clemens as well as right fielder/designated hitter Andre Dawson. The 1992 season was Hobson's first at the Red Sox's helm. That team was decimated by injuries to key players and finished seventh in the A.L. East. Hobson's only year as a Class AAA manager was 1991. Under Hobson, Pawtucket made a dramatic turnaround, going from last place in 1990 to first place in '91. Hobson won the International League's Manager of the Year honor and was selected by "Baseball America" as Class AAA Manager of the Year. In 1990, Hobson, in his second season with New Britain, guided the team to the final round of the Eastern League playoffs after the club finished fourth during the regular season. New Britain was eighth in Hobson's first season as manager but finished just 6½ games behind fourth-place Reading with a 13-game improvement for a 60-76 record. In five years as a minor league manager, Hobson had a 349-345 (.503) regular-season mark. Hobson had been named New Britain manager on January 5, 1989. The appointment marked his return to the Red Sox organization. He had played for Boston from 1975 through 1980. He also played for the Angels in 1981 and the Yankees in 1982. From 1983-85, he played for the Yankees' Class AAA team at Columbus and was released during spring training of 1986. He sat out that year before becoming manager of the Mets' Class A Columbia affiliate in the South Atlantic League in 1987-88. In '88, he guided the Mets to a 74-63 (.540) record. Columbia finished second during the second half of the season with a 36-31 mark. In '87, the team was 64-75 (.460). Butch played both baseball and football at the University of Alabama. He was backup quarterback to Terry Davis for Bear Bryant's "wishbone" offense in 1972, a season that culminated in the Crimson Tide's Orange Bowl appearance vs. Nebraska for the national championship. Hobson's father, Clell Sr., was a three-year letterman at quarterback for Alabama, 1950-52. Butch played football for his dad at Bessemer (Ala.) High School and was named to the All-Jefferson County team as a senior. He also played basketball and baseball for Bessemer. Butch was the Red Sox's eighth pick in the 1973 June draft. He played two games with the Red Sox at the end of 1975, then came back again June 28, 1976. That night, he hit an inside-the-park homer at Fenway Park off Rudy May of Baltimore. From 1977-79, Hobson hit 75 homers and had 285 RBIs. He still holds Red Sox season records for homers (30) and RBIs (112) for a third baseman, marks he set in 1977.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ANTHONY La RUSSA, JR.—Born October 4, 1944, Tampa, FL; Residence: Danville, CA . . . Married (Elaine), two children . . . Height: 6-1, Weight: 190 . . . Named Manager July 1, 1986, succeeding Jackie Moore.

Tony La Russa returns for his ninth season as the Athletics manager. . . . He has guided the A's to four of the last six American League Championships and twice in the last six years has he been named the AL Manager of the Year by both the BBWAA and The Sporting News. . . . Since arriving in Oakland on July 6, 1986, Tony has helped restore the Athletics to one of the top clubs in baseball. No one has managed the A's for more games (1,213) or to more victories (680). . . . Despite finishing with 68 victories in 1993, no team in baseball has won more games than the A's over the last six seasons (1988-93). . . . La Russa's .561 winning percentage as the A's skipper is second only to Dick Williams (.602) among Oakland managers. Within the active managing ranks, Tony's career .535 winning percentage ranks fourth to Toronto's Cito Gaston, Cincinnati's Davey Johnson and Detroit's Sparky Anderson. . . . La Russa's pro baseball career began in 1962 on the night he graduated from high school in Tampa, Florida. . . . Signed as a free agent by the then Kansas City Athletics, Tony made his major league debut with the A's just a year later. He went on to play professionally for 16 seasons, but never once spending an entire season in the major leagues. . . . After his stint with Kansas City in 1963, it was five years before he returned to the major leagues and this time it was with the A's in Oakland. . . . He went on to play parts of four years with the A's before finishing out his playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs . . . Tony's managerial career began in 1978 when he took over the Chicago White Sox club at Knoxville (AA) in the Southern League. That club, led by Harold Baines, got off to a 53-25 mark and earned La Russa a spot in August on Chicago's coaching staff. . . . At the start of 1979 season, he was named manager at Iowa (AAA) for the White Sox but on August 2nd of that year Tony was brought to Chicago to take over the reins of the White Sox, replacing Don Kessinger. . . . Over the next seven years, he established himself as one of the top young managers in the game. His top year in Chicago was 1983 when he led the White Sox to the AL West title with a 99-63 record. Tony's team won the division by a record 20 games. La Russa was rewarded that year by being named the Manager of the Year by AP, The Sporting News, and by BBWAA. . . . He next year he had the White Sox tied for first place at the All-Star break, before finishing fifth with a 74-88 record. . . . Tony was relieved of his duties with the White Sox on June 19, 1986, and it was just three weeks later that he took over the fortunes of the Athletics, on July 6, 1986. . . . In just his second full year in Oakland, 1988, he guided the A's to an AL West and baseball best 104 victories on the way to an AL Championship and berth in the World Series. For his efforts he was once again honored as the AL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA and The Sporting News . . . The A's returned to the World Series in each of the next two seasons and won the World Championship in the 1989 Bay Bridge Series with San Francisco. . . . With the 1992 AL West title, La Russa had the distinction of managing the Athletics to four AL West titles in five years. . . . A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, Tony passed the bar exam in December of 1979. He is one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are all in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

CLARENCE EDWIN (Cito) GASTON—Born: March 17, 1944, San Antonio, TX . . . Residence: Dunedin, FL . . . Married (Denise), two children . . . Height: 6-4 . . . Weight: 210 lbs . . . Fifth manager in franchise history . . . Appointed manager May 15, 1989, on an interim basis and officially on May 31, 1989.

The Toronto Blue Jays won their second consecutive World Series championship in 1993 under the guidance of Manager Cito Gaston . . . In 1992, Gaston led Toronto to its first-ever World Series title and in doing so became the first African American ever to manage such a team . . . The 1993 season was Cito's fifth year as Blue Jays manager and fourth full season since taking over from Jimy Williams on May 15, 1989 . . . Named Toronto's Black Businessman of the Year in '93 . . . Gaston's Blue Jay teams have won American League East titles four times (1989, 1991-93) and A.L. pennants twice ('92 and '93) . . . He currently ranks fourth among current A.L. managers in wins (426) . . . Cito already is the winningest manager in Blue Jays history, surpassing Bobby Cox with victory No. 356 on May 24, 1993, in a 4-1 victory over the Brewers . . . He is just the third manager (Earl Weaver and Sparky Anderson are the others) since 1969 to win four divisional crowns in a five-year span . . . Gaston joined the Blue Jays' organization on November 4, 1981, as the club's first full-time hitting instructor . . . He was brought to Toronto by then-Blue Jays manager Bobby Cox . . . He participated in 17 seasons of professional baseball (1964-80), including 11 major league seasons . . . He broke into the majors in 1967 with Atlanta and was later claimed by the Padres in the 1968 expansion draft . . . Gaston played for San Diego for six years before rejoining Atlanta in 1975 . . . He closed out his major league career in 1978 with the Pirates . . . His finest season came in 1970 with the Padres when he batted .318 with 29 homers and 93 runs batted in and played in that season's All-Star Game.

THE BALLPARK IN ARLINGTON

The Ballpark In Arlington is on schedule to open on Monday, April 11th, when the Rangers take on the Milwaukee Brewers in an afternoon game.

On April 1, 1994, a new era for the Texas Rangers will begin with the opening of The Ballpark In Arlington. The beautiful baseball-only facility will serve as the centerpiece of a 270-acre complex which will solidify Arlington, Texas as an entertainment giant of the Southwest.

The Ballpark In Arlington, completed in just 23 months, is a state-of-the-art building with the utmost in customer convenience. Yet, the 49,292-seat open-air ballpark was designed and built with tradition and intimacy in mind, containing features such as a granite and brick facade, exposed structural steel, an asymmetrical playing field, and a home run porch in right field. Texas architecture is featured throughout, from the outer facade to the Lone Stars in the concourses and on the seat aisles.

This unique complex will also include a baseball museum, a children's learning center, and a four-story office building within the ballpark and a youth baseball park, amphitheater, retail and restaurant area, two six-acre lakes, and parks and recreation space on the perimeter. Most of the amenities are expected to be finished this year with the entire project set for completion by 1995. Total cost of the project is projected at nearly 190 million dollars.

The Ballpark In Arlington is located a quarter mile southeast of the old Arlington Stadium. Parking lots and the other complex features will surround the park. The ballpark contains approximately 1,400,000 square feet and measures 114 feet from street level to the top of the roof canopy.

The agreement between the Rangers and the City of Arlington, Texas to build a new ballpark was announced on October 24, 1990. Actual construction began on April 24, 1992. The ballpark was named on September 28, 1993.

The playing surface of The Ballpark In Arlington will consist of Bermuda Tifway 419 overseeded with Rye grass. The outfield dimensions will not be symmetrical, a feature common to ballparks constructed in the early 20th century (see dimensions on page 42). According to studies done before construction, the prevailing winds are expected to be south-southeast. The effect of the wind is expected to be greatly reduced by the fact that the ballpark is completely enclosed by a four-story office building in center field. The proximity of the fans to the action will be among the closest in the major leagues. The first row of seats on the first and third base sides (near side of dugouts) will be just 56'8" from home plate (compared to 64 feet at Arlington Stadium).

The ballpark contains five seating levels: lower deck, lower suites, club level, upper suites, and upper deck. All of the seats in the ballpark are angled towards home plate as the seating bowl cranks in towards the field down both the left and right field lines to provide better sightlines. Most of the seats in the ballpark will contain cupholders, and there is a special feature on aisle seats in the park, a Texas Lone Star that is similar to the ones that adorn both the outer facade and concourses. There are 120 suites, and each suite bay (containing two suites) is named for one of baseball's all-time star players. All 67 of the legends are enshrined in Baseball's Hall of Fame, except Nolan Ryan. Sepiatone murals of the legends will be located outside each suite.

The Home Run Porch, a two-tiered seating area in right field, is very reminiscent of traditional older ballparks with its steel columns and overhead roof. A lower and upper set of concrete arches comprise the outer walls of The Ballpark In Arlington. The exterior facade of the ballpark consists of "Sunset Red" granite along the lower arches and "Ranger Red" bricks on the upper arches. To highlight the Texas architecture, there are 35 steer heads and 21 Lone Stars, made of cast-stone, erected above the upper arches around the entire ballpark. Another feature is a series of murals depicting Texas scenes, and those are located between the lower and upper arches on the outer facade.

The scoreboard system is highlighted by a manual scoreboard, where scores of all other major league games in progress will be posted inside the board by an attendant. The manual scoreboard will be located on the left field wall, similar to the one that highlights the left field "Green Monster" at Boston's Fenway Park.

The cost of the overall project is 189.4 million dollars. The financing is derived from 135 million dollars in bonds issued by the Arlington Sports Facilities Development Authority with the remaining equity raised through the sale or lease of luxury boxes and seat options in the new ballpark, loans guaranteed by the Rangers, the concessions contract with Sportservice and city street funds.

Annual debt service for the municipal bonds is provided by public-private sharing. That is comprised of a 3.5 million dollar rental payment from the Rangers and a one-half cent City of Arlington sales tax. The sales tax was approved in an Arlington municipal election by a 65% majority on January 19, 1991, and expires once the debt is retired.

The Rangers have a lease with the City of Arlington, and the club will maintain and operate the entire facility.

David M. Schwarz Architectural Services of Washington, D.C. was the design architect on the project. Schwarz was selected from among 17 architects who originally made presentations in August, 1991. He has been involved in a number of projects in Texas including the Cook-Fort Worth Children's Medical Center and Sundance West, also in Fort Worth. His imaginative design of the park reflects a traditional look of older ballparks and includes a major Texas influence.

INDIANS PARK—CLEVELAND

The Cleveland Indians will play the Seattle Mariners to inaugurate Indians Park on Opening Day of the 1994 A.L. season, Monday, April 4th.

The Gateway Sports Complex, a baseball-only ballpark and multi-purpose arena located in downtown Cleveland, marks an historic time for a city and its team.

Symbolic of the rebirth of Cleveland and the spirit of the partnership that has sparked it, the Gateway Sports Complex was made possible by its own 50/50 public-private partnership—through the support and cooperative efforts of the business community, government, the Indians, their neighbors the Cavs, sports fans and most importantly the people of Cuyahoga County.

This unique and admired public/private partnership is more than a sports complex, it is an urban development plan that is designed to spur economic growth in downtown Cleveland.

Complementing that plan is the new home of the Cleveland Indians—Indians Park, which was built solely for baseball with a capacity of 42,400.

The Indians organization and the Gateway Economic Development Corporation worked closely to fund, design and build a world-class facility created expressly for baseball, specifically for Cleveland and most importantly—with the fans' "total experience" in mind.

In planning for the fans' "total experience" at Indians Park, the Cleveland Indians identified the features and amenities the team and their fans wanted the most, studied the best concepts from ballparks across the country, and added innovation of their own. The result will be one of the finest baseball facilities in the United States, and one that is uniquely Cleveland.

Indians Park is an urban ballpark in the truest sense, both architecturally and aesthetically. Built within the physical boundaries of three main streets in downtown Cleveland (Ontario St. to the west; Carnegie to the south; and E. 9th St. to the east), Indians Park will offer a fan-friendly facility featuring an intimate environment.

The exposed steel design (matching the many bridges on the Northcoast) and the vertical light towers (which match the smoke stacks of the industrial zone and the many high rise office buildings) are just a few of the architect's features that blend with Cleveland's cityscape.

When you enter Indians Park you will be at the mid-level of the ballpark, where you are treated to a panoramic view of the field, which lies 18 feet below street level.

The field is asymmetrical, with nooks and crannies for added excitement and should be a hitter's park. The dimensions for Indians Park are 325' down the left and right field lines; 405' in dead center; 370' in the left field power alley and 375' in the right field power alley. The deepest part of the ballpark is 410' in left center.

A few signature features of Indians Park include: improved sightlines with the creation of angled seating sections; more comfortable seats with more leg room and wider aisles; a 19-foot "little green monster" in left field that also houses the out-of-town scoreboard; the largest free-standing scoreboard in the country, and a full color Sony Jumbotron; Kidsland—an area with specialty concession and souvenir items just for kids; a triple deck right field; bullpens with three pitching mounds; a four-tiered Picnic Plaza complete with trees and wood picnic tables located in centerfield; concession stands placed in the center of the main concourse providing a constant view of the playing field; and convenient public transportation.

A totally new fan experience awaits the sports fan of Northeast Ohio at Indians Park and the Cleveland Indians organization is excited with the prospect of presenting Major League Baseball like never before.

The Kansas City Royals officially changed the name of their ballpark to Ewing M. Kauffman Stadium, in pre-game ceremonies on July 2, 1993. The Jackson County Legislature approved the renaming in response to public sentiment and persuasion from community, civic and business leaders in K.C.

MOLITOR RECEIVES BART GIAMATTI AWARD

Paul Molitor of the Toronto Blue Jays was awarded the Bart Giamatti "Caring" Award at the fifth annual "Going to BAT for B.A.T." charity dinner. The dinner was held this past January by Major League's own Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.). The award is presented to an active player who has performed exceptional community service.

BO JACKSON RECEIVES THE TONY CONIGLIARO AWARD

Bo Jackson of the Chicago White Sox was voted the 1993 winner of the Tony Conigliaro Award. The award is presented annually, starting in 1990, to a major league player who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage.

The 30-year-old outfielder/designated hitter competed with an artificial hip after undergoing replacement surgery in April of 1992. Jackson's career-threatening injury to his hip happened while playing for the Los Angeles Raiders in a National Football League playoff game, January 13, 1991. After a year-long rehabilitation program, he provided a dramatic return by homering in his first swing of the bat, April 9 at Comiskey Park. Jackson finished the 1993 season playing in 85 games, batting .232 (66-for-284), with 16 home runs and 45 RBI's.

TWINS' DAVE WINFIELD WINS A.L.'S JOE CRONIN AWARD FOR "SIGNIFICANT ACHIEVEMENT"

The Joe Cronin Award for "significant achievement" for 1993 was awarded to outfielder/designated hitter Dave Winfield of the Minnesota Twins, for becoming only the 19th player in Major League history to record 3,000 or more hits.

Winfield's 3,000th was an RBI single off Oakland's Dennis Eckersley on September 16th. He finished his 21st Major League season with 148 hits for a career total of 3,014.

The 12-time All-Star's hit total includes 520 doubles, 85 triples and 453 home runs. He has accounted for 1,786 runs batted in, including the 76 he drove home in '93.

The award is named for the late President of the American League and Chairman of the Board, who was a Hall of Fame shortstop with the Boston Red Sox. The award was established in 1973 to honor Cronin and to recognize the distinguished achievements of the American Leaguers. A complete list of Cronin Award winners appears below.

BASEBALL REALIGNS INTO THREE DIVISIONS AND ADDS DIVISIONAL SERIES

Beginning with the 1994 season major league baseball will feature a new look. The Major League Owners set forth a proposal to the Players Union, which was agreed upon by the Union on a one-year trial basis, to realign baseball into three divisions in each league and add an additional series of games to the post-season schedule. The new three-division alignment appears below.

A new Divisional Series has been added to the post-season schedule that will feature the winners of each division and a wild card team squaring off in a best-of-five series. The home-field advantage of games three, four, and five will be determined in advance by the league office, but the wild card team will not have the home field advantage in the divisional series. The wild card team will be the second place team with the best record and will play the divisional champion with the best record, unless the two teams are from the same division, or if the team with the best record does not have the home field advantage (Games 3, 4, 5).

The two winners from each league will advance to the best-of-seven League Championship Series, with the winners of the L.C.S. moving on to the World Series.

FOUR AMERICAN LEAGUE GREATS RETIRE

The American League will begin the 1994 season minus four star players who elected retirement during the 1993 season and off-season. Potential Hall-of-Famers Nolan Ryan of Texas, George Brett of Kansas City, Carlton Fisk of the Chicago White Sox and Robin Yount of Milwaukee played their final Major League seasons in 1993.

Yount spent all 20 years of his Major League service with the Milwaukee Brewers. A two-time MVP and three-time A.L. All-Star, he batted .414 in the 1982 World Series and had an overall .285 career average.

Brett played his entire career for the Kansas City Royals and in 20 years of M.L. service, he appeared in six ALCS, hit .373 in two World Series, and was named to 13 All-Star teams.

Brett and Yount were honored as co-winners of the A.L.'s Joe Cronin Award for Significant Achievement, following the 1992 season, when each achieved the 3,000-hit mark.

Catcher Carlton Fisk, whose 1975 World Series Game 6, game-winning home run is one of baseball's most memorable moments, retired in mid-season after setting an all-time record with his 2,226th game caught. Fisk's major league career spanned 23 seasons with the Boston Red Sox and White Sox. He was an 11-time All-Star and played in two ALCS.

Amazing Nolan Ryan, who ranks in a slew of career pitching categories, including being the all-time Major League leader in strikeouts, retired from the Texas Rangers at age 46 at the end of the 1993 season. Ryan pitched seven no-hitters in his remarkable career and had stints with the New York Mets, California Angels, Houston Astros and Texas Rangers. He owns 52 Major League records, pitched in one World Series, four LCS and was named to seven All-Star squads.

ALLAN H. "BUD" SELIG

Chairman, Executive Council
President & CEO, Milwaukee Brewers

Allan H. "Bud" Selig has been the Chairman of the game's Executive Council since September 9, 1992, increasing his already substantial involvement with the game on a national basis in that capacity. Selig oversees the committee which has authority of the Baseball Commissioner.

Selig is also Chairmen of the Major League Baseball Player Relations Committee, a member of the Major League Ownership Committee and a trustee of Baseball's Hall of Fame.

Selig was born July 30, 1934, in Milwaukee. He graduated from Milwaukee's Washington High School in 1952 and from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1956, where he majored in American History and Political Science. In college, his roommate was current United States Senator and Milwaukee Bucks owner Herb Kohl. After two years in the Army, Selig returned to civilian life to work for his father in the automobile business. Selig presently retains ties to that industry by serving as President of the Selig Executive Lease Company.

A baseball fan as a youngster, Selig followed the old Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago Cubs. When Milwaukee joined the Major Leagues in 1953, Bud became a Braves fan. He subsequently became the Braves largest public stockholder in 1963, before selling his stock two years later when the Braves moved to Atlanta.

In December of 1964, he organized "Teams, Inc.," an organization formed to return Major League Baseball to Milwaukee. Bud led the group, which changed its name to "The Brewers" in 1965. The group arranged for the Chicago White Sox to play several regular season games at County Stadium in 1968, which proved to be a tremendous success.

After failing to purchase the White Sox in 1969 and witnessing the awarding of Major League expansion franchises to four other cities. Selig's efforts were finally rewarded on April 1, 1970, when a Seattle bankruptcy court awarded the Settle franchise to Selig and his investors.

Selig has been honored by the B'nai B'rith Foundation and received the "International B'nai B'rith Sportsmen of the Year Award" for his distinguished contributions to the world of sports. He was singled out in May of 1983 by the United States Olympic Committee to receive their distinguished "Sportsmen of the Year Award" for his contributions to baseball and to youth activities in Milwaukee.

Under Selig's tutelage, the Brewers received the "Baird Award for Management Excellence" in April of 1989. The Baird Award is given annually to a Wisconsin corporation that consistently demonstrates superior financial achievement and community involvement.

Also counted among Selig's many honors is the prestigious "August A. Busch, Jr. Award" presented at a joint meeting of the Major Leagues in September of 1989. The award is given for "long and meritorious service to baseball" and is equivalent—for off-field personnel—to the player's Most Valuable Player Award. In December of 1990, Bud received the "Distinguished Citizen Award" from the Potawatomi Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

On May 16, 1993, Selig was the recipient of the distinguished Ellis Island Congressional Medal of Honor. The medal is awarded to outstanding citizens of the United States who have contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of their ancestors.

Selig is a member of the Board of Directors of the Green Bay Packers Football Team., the Greater Milwaukee Committee, University of Wisconsin Medical School, Baird Mutual Funds, the Milwaukee Symphony and the Oil Dri Corporation of America. He is a founder of the Athletes for Youth, was instrumental in establishing the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund and serves on the Advisory Board of BADD (Business Against Drunk Drivers).

Bud and his wife, Sue, have become very active in the community and were co-recipients of the "1990 Humanitarian Award" from the St. Francis Children's Center. They co-chaired the 1989 Cerebral Palsy Telethon and lend their support and time to the Milwaukee Art Museum. This February he received the Anti-Defamation League's "World of Difference" Award.

CLUBS IMPROVE BALLPARK ENVIRONMENT THROUGH TEAM

Major League Baseball and its 28 clubs are celebrating their sixth season as a member of the Techniques for Effective Alcohol Management (TEAM) coalition in 1994.

In its five years as a member of TEAM, clubs have succeeded in reducing the number of alcohol-related incidents in and around its ballparks while increasing fan awareness of the dangers associated with drinking and driving.

MLB's TEAM program has two components:

Assessment and Training: TEAM helps major league stadium operators assess current alcohol policies and practices, develop new policies, train employees, implement responsible beverage service programs and evaluate results. Changes have ranged from a reduction in the size and vending in the stands at some parks.

National/Local Awareness Campaigns: TEAM creates highly visible public service campaigns involving MLB players warning fans against the dangers of drinking and driving and encouraging them to drink responsibly. MLB has donated more than $5 million of air time on network and local TV and radio broadcasts in addition to print advertisements.

Major League Baseball is joined on the TEAM coalition by, among others, the NBA, the NFL, the NHL, the NCAA and the U.S. Department of Transportation.
